About Me

Hi, my name is Mauricio and i'm a passionate Front-End Developer with extremely attention to detail.

I love to develop meaningful interactions to the user and ensure best possible performance on all platforms.

I have 6+ years of Front End development experience and I'm a evangelist of Agile/Scrum principles and methodology and have extensive knowledge of project management software (JIRA, Trello).

I am mainly focused in: `React.js` and `Node.js`

and other relevant skills include: `Javascript`, `HTML5/CSS3`, React Native, C#, MySQL, MongoDB, Nunjucks, JSON/REST, Unity3d, Git/SVN, and Photoshop

Projects

Lunch Team Platters

lunch.team

It's like Ifood, but for companies.

This is my first professional project working with React.js and I'm having a blast while working on it. Everyday I learn something new.

Kaze and the Wild Masks

playkaze.com

I hope this project takes the Brazilian Indie Game Development scene to a new level.

This project was a huge challenge for me because I was responsible for overlook the entire development cycle of the game. Managing a team was a big deal, and I learned a lot about Project Management in general while working in this project.
